

FISH RESTAURANTS

Sicily boasts the biggest fishing port in Italy at Mazara del Vallo; a sign of the intense relationship between the sea and a cuisine based on fish.

For this reason we feel it is right to indicate some of the fish restaurants in nearby areas at the end of this page.

We feel the following list of restaurants, all near Case Perrotta, are good value for money.

Obviously these are only some suggestions and not a complete list.

More information and bookings will be available there.
